

Financial Management

ABOUT THIS COURSE

This course introduces the learner to the principles of finance and their application. Topics include the time value of money, valuation of financial securities including bonds and stocks, capital budgeting, determining appropriate discount rates and short- and long-term financing.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Understand the financial planning process.
- Become familiar with financial-ratio analysis, budgeting and forecasting policy.
- Understand short- and long-term financing.
- Know the cost and risk factors of capital budgeting.

APPROXIMATE COURSE HOURS

- 39 hours (in class or online)