

Organizational Behaviour

ABOUT THIS COURSE

This course will help managers understand practices, organizational structures and other factors that influence behaviour in organizations. Topics include high-performance work practices, organization structures, team development, leadership, motivation, employee engagement, conflict management, change management and decision-making.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- See how organizational reality is changing in today's work world.
- Understand the impact of human behaviour and its implications for managing people effectively.
- Be at ease with a range of management-level communication strategies.
- Apply contemporary organizational theory to build a positive, proactive work environment.

APPROXIMATE COURSE HOURS

- 39 hours (in class or online)